

The European Dream. The Continuing Process of European Unification
 3rd Transatlantic Students Symposium · Georgetown / Humboldt / Viadrina / Prague

Symposium Week Program

Saturday, March 5 PRAGUE	American Group: Flight to Prague, Berlin Group: Train 20:00 Laterna Magika: Play: Odysseus (a performance consisting of dance and film)
Sunday, March 6 PRAGUE	Morning: Visit to the Jewish Cemetery & Museum Afternoon: City tour, Hradšín Evening: Dinner with Czech Students
Monday, March 7 PRAGUE	09:00 Workshop: Dr. Ivo Šlosarčík: “The Integration Process of the Czech Republic into the European Union” (Dr. Šlosarčík stresses that the European Union always has combined economic with political aims. Comparison between the recent expansion and that bringing the former dictatorships of Spain, Greece and Portugal to the EC, stabilization of new democracies as key EU interest, but democratization impulse has to come from the applicant) Noon: free for individual sightseeing 16:00: Visit to German Embassy, discussion with the staff about the relations between Czech Republic and Germany Evening: Free
Tuesday, March 8 PRAGUE/BERLIN	Train Ride to Berlin 19:15 guided tour through the Reichstag
Wednesday, March 9 BERLIN	09:00-10:30 Talk with Political Representatives: Dr. Angelica Schwall-Düren (SPD), Dr. Andreas Schockenhoff (CDU), Jakob-Kaiser-Haus (Both speakers stress similar aims in EU politics. Issue of Turkey dependant upon human rights situation. Problems of integration and multiculturalism, especially in Berlin schools.) 11:30-13:30 Workshop EU/UK: Prof. Dr. Clemens Wurm, HU (Different approaches to the European question, Euro-skeptic position in UK based upon economic problems in continental Europe and historically strong role of the Commonwealth, anti-EU sentiments in the press could be countered by a strong government position, if Tony Blair wanted to do so) Lunch 15:00-... Vistit to the Pergamon-Museum Evening: Free

Thursday, March 10 FRANKFURT/O	10:30 arrival at Viadrina 11:00 welcome address Vice President Kötzle (report on the interaction between the German and Polish part of the university) 11:30 Viadrina university tour 12:00 Lunch at the Mensa 14:30 Workshops at Collegium Polonicum in Słubice: 14:30 Dr. Jörg Jacobs: “Values in Europe: Unity in Diversity” (studies reveal that Europeans converge on issues over time) 15:45 Alexandra Schwell: “The Borders of European Identity” (a discussion about the borders of the EU) 17:00 Prof. Jeffrey Peck: “German-Jewish Relations” (problem of Jewishness in Germany, definitions of Jewishness) 18:30 Return to Berlin
Friday, March 11 BERLIN	09:30-11:30 Workshop EU/US: Dr. Roy Weatherston, Deputy Cultural Attaché, US Embassy, Amerika Haus (America as sponsor of European unification, discussion of anti-Americanisms and current US policies) 11:40-12:10 „Sightseeing“ tour to the University (Bus 200) Lunch SYMPOSIUM DAY ONE (Senatssaal) (see separate program)
Saturday, March 12 BERLIN	SYMPOSIUM DAY TWO (Senatssaal) (see separate program)
Sunday, March 13 BERLIN	Joint breakfast, farewell to American student group